DISCLAIMER: Please carefully read the ingredients of the item you want to order. If you have any preferences ask your server PRIOR to ordering (EXAMPLE: If ordering a calzone that comes with ham, mozzarella, ricotta & pizza sauce, you cannot complain if it contains 'pizza sauce' unless you specified for 'no pizza sauce'.) The crust of our pizzas are brown. Ask for light baked if you prefer it to be more white. Prices are shown for menu items only, every customization might occur in a price change. We make fresh food and some items may take different cook/preparation times, therefore they may be served at different times. Mistakes are possible, so if the food you have been served is incorrect in any way, please let us know right away and we will replace it – to replace the food, we will need you to return the incorrect order back. Since we make fresh food to be consumed immediately, we cannot consider complaints the next day or any day after. All times of food preparation is estimated, not guaranteed. Grill and kitchen might close earlier than closing time (pizzas and cold subs available).

Our story starts in Smithsburg with our first store brought in 1977 (and sold in 1988) where we served homemade Italian dishes and our famous pizzas, than we expanded in 1982 opening another shop in Cascade across Fort Ritchie, where we kept the same authentic Italian recipes that we are still serving from our kitchen to your table. Buon appetito from Parascandolo's Family.
